

Not Like Them

Kllo

Imagine if everything that we were made of
It was something that we imagined
Stuck in a fantasy that we created between I've relied on the people that I may have dreamt of It's seeming that I don't see the same
It's reoccurring where I don't bleed the same as them

But I'm not staying, staying
No, I'm not blanking it out, it out
Friends keep changing, changing
No, I'm not faking it now, it now
'Cause I'm not like them

Naivety desired to be in the energy
Closer than most to the enemy
I've been alone without recognising it at all
Backwater can not find a connection
Then there is no progression
But I've discovered what makes my happiness keep on going

But I'm not staying, staying
No, I'm not blanking it out, it out
Friends keep changing, changing
No, I'm not faking it now, it now

But I'm not staying, staying
No, I'm not blanking it out, it out
Friends keep changing, changing
No, I'm not faking it now, it now

But I'm not staying, staying
No, I'm not blanking it out, it out
Friends keep changing, changing
No, I'm not faking it now, it now
'Cause I'm not like them
