

Predicament

Kilo

Though to be the one
I can think about it sometimes
Did it all, I did no harm
I'm caught in the middle
Always find a way to compromise
But never different in this place you call mine

Mix it up in my head
When you did, and didn't wanna show
Light it up, blow it out
Start again, predicament

Tell me you're the one, tell me you're the one
That I could not do without
Tell me you're the one, tell me you're the one
That I should still love
Tell me you're the one, tell me you're the one
That would never do me wrong
Tell me you're the one, yeah, tell me you're the one
But you're not the one, not the one

Stay, won't go away
Hoping that it might all just wash over
Shame the words will not erase
There's no more excuses
Never thought you'd be the one to lie
But I can see the ghost behind your eyes

Though to be the one
I can think about it sometimes
Did it all, I did no harm
I can think about it sometimes

It's a predicament
It's a predicament
It's a predicament
It's a predicament
It's a predicament
It's a predicament

It's a predicament
It's a predicament
I did no harm
It's a predicament
It's a predicament
I did no harm
It's a predicament
It's a predicament
I did no harm
It's a predicament

Mix it up in my head
Light it up, blow it up

Mix it up in my head

When you did, and didn't wanna show

Mix it up in my head

Tell me you're the one, tell me you're the one
That I could not do without
Tell me you're the one, tell me you're the one
That I should still love
Tell me you're the one, tell me you're the one
That would never do me wrong
Tell me you're the one, yeah, tell me you're the one

Tell me you're the one, tell me you're the one
Baby, not the one, not the one
