

I know I don't feel
I know I don't feel
I know I don't feel
I know I don't feel
I don't know touch, I don't know touch
I don't know touch, I don't know touch
I don't know touch, I don't know touch
I don't know touch, I don't know touch
I don't know touch, I don't know touch
I don't know touch, I don't know touch
I don't know touch, I don't know touch
I don't know touch, I don't know touch

When it's faded I'll always pull it back
Retain what is done, don't you turn your back
When you call me out's when you're feeling down
Every single take over parting to one (Touch)

It was going right, it was going right, right (Touch)
It was once to fight, it was once to fight, fight

I know I don't feel it like I used to, used to
I know I don't feel it like I used to, no
I don't know touch, I don't know touch
I know I don't feel it like I used to
I don't know touch, I don't know touch
I don't know touch, I don't know touch
I know I don't feel it like I used to
I don't know touch, I don't know touch

What's unsafe is now possibly mislead
Don't get up on how to figure what it's fade for
Will it stick to fully understand
What it is that I am losing out on?

I've desensitized, I've desensitized-tized (Touch)
It was going right, it was going right, right

I know I don't feel it like I used to, used to
I know I don't feel it like I used to, no
I don't know touch, I don't know touch
I know I don't feel
I don't know touch, I don't know touch
I don't know touch, I don't know touch
I know I don't feel
I don't know touch, I don't know touch
