

Under Lie

Kllo

I hope you know I don't follow your empathy
Bite your tongue before you speak
'Cause I'm sick a' hearing that you're heavy-hearted late

Spiteful conversations ain't gon' serve you tea
Persuasive only when alone
And I will settle down knowin' your philosophy

All the lying subsists as the light in here
Manipulated like heavy-hearted greed

Shake this kind, please don't deny
It plays on your mind
Spoke too high, pulled your head in twice
A waste of my time, I guess I was right
A waste of my time

All the lying subsists as the light in here manipulated
Rolling in and out of twisted tight, choose to Retaliated heavy-hearted greed

Frame this kind, please don't deny
It plays on your mind
Spoke too high, so I can't unwind
It's a waste of your time, I guess I was right
A waste of my time
I guess I was right
A waste of my time
