

Grim Lullabye

Klone

I call you in the dead of night again
You're alone, angel in a cage
Vulnerable, horrified
As the rain lashes at your windowpane

Turned your back
Walked away from me
Broke my heart into pieces

Can you hear me ? I'm watching you
Lurking in the dark
You can't hide, don't you run
I am to come out into the open

You seem like a veal
Screaming its lungs out
In the corridor
Of a slaughterhouse

Turned your back
Walked away from me
Broke my heart into pieces
(open sore bleeding sorrow)

Tonight, in a last embrace
I'll stretch you out on a slab
I will take one last chance
Let's share one last dance

Turned your back
Walked away from me
Broke my heart into pieces
(open sore bleeding sorrow)

Can you hear me ? I am watching you...
