

Never Surrender

Klone

I won't break, I won't bend, I won't bow...never
I won't yield, I won't kneel, I'll stand still...forever

I'm not afraid to die
I hold my head up high
As you twist the knife in the wound...

I'm left to my own devices
And to my torturer's vices
God won't save me now...

Crucify me
Nailed to the cross
I won't beg for mercy...

Break my bones
Burn my eyes
Scare my skin
My soul will overcome...

My heartbeat
Strikes my temples
Like no bullet wound...

The movie of my life
Passes before my eyes
As my forces leave me...

Still I hold on tight
Don't give up the fight
I know freedom will come...

Break my bones
Burn my eyes
Scare my skin
My soul will overcome...

The downward spiral of pain
Cracks open under me
I clench my teeth, I clench my fists
Before I breathe my last

I won't break, I won't bend, I won't bow...never
I won't yield, I won't kneel, I'll stand still...forever

I won't break, I won't bend, I won't bow...never

I won't yield, I won't kneel, I'll stand still...forever

I won't break, I won't bend, I won't bow...never
I won't yield, I won't kneel, I'll stand still...forever
