

Promises

Klone

All that I promise you, is beyond your dreams
All that you're searching for is within my reach, a banality
A better world is waiting for you, like a simplicity
I'll give you the way to confidence, believe in me
I'm here to free you

I was living in a lie
All that I promise you
The treason's other side
Together in throes

Now I've got you, wherever I want
You won't be able to get away
And now I've got you wherever I want
Just look and relieve my deliverance

I was living in a lie
All that I promise you
The treason's other side
Together in throes
