

Private Party

Klymaxx

All I know is whatever I do, I got to be sexy
This miniskirt is looking kinda right
Mm, garter, silk stockings and pumps
Honey, what all these people doing here?
I thought you said this is a private party
Now we all know that a private party was meant for two
This means me and you

You asked me to your house to join the party
You said it's meant for me and only you
On my way, they're wondering what's in store for me
I knew your sexy body would take control of me

A private party
It's meant for only two
A private party
It means me and you
A private party
When no one else around
A private party
I don't need no guests when love comes down

No, I don't
Ooh
Ooh, ooh, babe

Slip into the sexy dress, a bottle for you
I put on my lace garter and silk stockings too
Sprayed my body with the scent that turns you on Yearning that I feel for you is, oh, so strong

A private party
The champagne is chilling
A private party
Baby, I'm willing
A private party
To give my love to you
A private party
There's no room for no one but two

Ooh, we're doing it
Ooh
Ooh, ooh
Cooley, give me the groove I can undress to

Ooh, yeah
Ooh

You asked me to your house to join the party
You said it's meant for me and you alone
Passion lingers from the love that we just made
Memories of this night will last forever and a day

A private party
Oh (ooh, ooh ooh)
A private party

A private party
To give my love to you
A private party
There's no room for no one but you
Ooh, ooh, yeah

There's still a bottle of champagne chilling by the fireplace
Would you like a taste?
Passion lingers from the love that we just made

Ooh, ooh babe
Ooh
