

Make Love

KMFDM

"We are a multi-cultural society that needs to learn how to build bridges, and to scapegoat a community, to scapegoat a group on the basis of their race or religion is not gonna be a basis on which America can develop and grow as a country. That is the truth. And that is what this country is looking for now. Our task is far from over."

Who's got the key to the temple of love?
You never win if you don't try
Now that I'm tamed, like fire and ice
Pleasure and pain 'til the day that I die

Make love
Make love
Make love
Make love
Make love
Make love
Make love
Make love

We are friends
We're good advice
We give and take
We sacrifice
We're beauty
We're disgust
We're flesh and blood
We're full of lust

Who's got the key to the temple of love?
You never win if you don't try
Now that I'm tamed, like fire and ice
Pleasure and pain 'til the day that I die

Make love
Make love
Make love
Make love
Make love
Make love
Make love
Make love

Sometimes sick
Sometimes fine
Pull a break
Pull a gun
Full of pride
Not a shame
Right now
Face it we're the same

Who's got the key to the temple of love?

So, you want me?
You want me so bad
You beg and cry for it

Tell me, would die for it?

We are sleep
We are speed
We're the meat on which you feed
Have no fear
Come out to play
Don't believe a word we say

Who's got the key to the temple of love?
You never win if you don't try
Now that I'm tamed, like fire and ice
Pleasure and pain 'til the day that I die

Make love
Who's got the key to the temple of love?
You never win
You never win
If you don't try
And you don't try

Make love
Now that I'm tamed like fire and ice (Like fire and ice)
In the temple of love
Pleasure and pain
Pleasure and pain 'til the day that I die
