

Urban Monkey Warfare

KMFDM

All you want is a scapegoat
All you want is to get absolution from shame
You have nothing to lose anymore
Never was anything worth to be lost in this war in the first place

They make you hate their name
Prostrate yourself in the arena of blame
Nothing at all is left to be said
The flag's gone up and the dawn is red

Headed down the hard way
Concrete battleground
Urban monkey warfare
Sabotage underground camouflage

Man-monkey
Monkey-man
Urban gorilla

All you know is reflection
All you know is the code to hack and crack
The truth lies buried in shallow graves
Who's afraid to claim it back?
