

Denied By Fate

Knocked Loose

Betrayed by the promise of death
You pulled me back from my final breath

I thought that I was finished
My knees to the floor
The hands of time
Have pulled me back for more

Every time you show your face
Everything falls out of place

I run towards the light
In search for escape
I am rejected
At heavens gate

Betrayed by the promise of death
Betrayed by the promise of death

I must fall
Lose it all
Cast aside
The end denied

When the worm was lowered
I took the bait
Exhale life
Remove the weight
My attempt at salvation
Denied by fate
