

Don't Reach For Me

Knocked Loose

I dream of a cleansing wave
Reborn
Don't reach for me

No lies can spread from a tongue removed

The weight of lies
Constricts your spine
I watch it kill you one day at a time
Crushing all you love
With every step
That's exactly why your daughter left

Do you hate me yet?
Do you hate me now?
A fitting end for an absolute fucking clown

I dream of a cleansing wave
Set me free
I return to form
No longer bound to me

And when your arms are too weak
To pull yourself back up
When your arms are too weak to reach for god

Don't reach for me

Will you grow tired
Portraying divinity
Will your voice soon become hoarse
From the lies you
Scream for the skin to shed
I let you get to me
You let it get to your head

Coward

I never gave a fuck
Do you hate me yet?
Do you hate me now?

I dream of a cleansing wave
Set me free
I return to form
No longer bound to me

And when your arms are too weak
To pull yourself back up
When your arms are too weak to reach for god

Don't reach for me

No lies can spread from a tongue removed

I will cut off your tongue

Don't reach for me
