

Misguided Son

Knocked Loose

You are never coming back

I watch loyalty withdraw
Remove all connection
No pulse remains in tact
I feel we lost direction
When you stabbed me in the back

Be quiet now
Misguided son
I am justice personified
All the lies that burn your tongue
Will start a fire
From the inside

I followed in your foot steps
Until you covered your tracks
Nothing is the way it seems
You are never coming back

Compassion revoked with every twist
Of the knife that you stabbed me with

Be quiet now
Misguided son

I can't be better if I pull myself down with you
I can't be better if I pull myself down with you
Down with you

Justice found its way
Misguided son
Down with you

I followed in your footsteps
A truth I can't accept
Your punishment is existence
A greater pain than death

I would rather die than be like you
