

DOKUNUMA

Knosis

We are the world
Consumed by envy
Distracted minds
As they open fire
Do what you're told
Live life of gluttony
It's not your fault that you're dying slowly

Go do what you're told
Or be what you know
Tonight
Tonight
Tonight
Tonight
Tonight
Tonight
Tonight
Go be what you know tonight

Wrath in this society
Cliches are apart of the faces that look down on every fault of this propriety
Sickens me like I should be
Some kind of property
Lusting over lotteries to take me out of poverty

Pride over the mind
Taking out all the weakness
Greed is where we find
How we stab each other's witness
Lazy but we're all in need
Time wasted by everything
I can feel it all go down down down
Time waits for no one

Go do what you're told
Or be what you know
Tonight
Tonight
Tonight
Tonight
Tonight
Tonight
Tonight
Go be what you know tonight
