

I felt like this for 18 years
When will you take it away?
It's been so long cried empty tears
I don't know quite what to say

I never thought that I could feel so deep
And I didn't think you'd hear me
Now I'm thinking maybe finally
You could be my sweetest memory

Where is my childhood?
Where is my happiness?

A thousand miles from 18 years
Feels like only a day
It's been so long kept all my fears
I tried to erase all the pain

I never thought that I could feel so deep
And I didn't think you'd hear me
Now I'm thinking maybe finally
You could be my sweetest memory

Where is my childhood?
Where is my happiness?

Da da da da do
Da da da da do
Da da da da do
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Da da da da do
Da da da da do
Da da da da do
Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah

Now I'm thinking maybe finally
You could be my sweetest memory

Where is my childhood?
Where is my happiness?

Where is my childhood?
Cause I can't see it anywhere
Not here, not now
I can't see it, no I can't see it
