

Weekend Yet

Knox Hamilton

Oh is it the weekend yet?
I just wanna lose myself
I just wanna find someone
I can spend the weekend with

I just wanna fall in love
I just want something new
Fall back out when Monday comes
Oh is it the weekend yet?

Go to a nice neighborhood
Swim in some rich guys pool
Pretend that we own it, he'll never know it
Tonight it's ours, yeah

I'm feeling invincible
Used to being invisible
I've never been seen
Except when you're looking at me, yeah

Oh is it the weekend yet?
I just wanna lose myself
I just wanna find someone
I can spend the weekend with

I just wanna fall in love
I just want something new
Fall back out when Monday comes
Oh is it the weekend yet?

We'll crash some rooftop party
Act like we're invited
Steal some drinks, cause a scene
Tonight is ours, yeah

I'm feeling untouchable
Used to feeling not a thing at all
I've never been free
Until you put your hands on me, yeah

Oh is it the weekend yet?
I just wanna lose myself
I just wanna find someone
I can spend the weekend with

I just wanna fall in love
I just want something new
Fall back out when Monday comes
Oh is it the weekend yet?

We'll fall in love for all the wrong reasons
We'll take our time, share all our secrets
It's beautiful, but everyone can see it
I'll be yours, you'll be mine, if only for the weekend

Oh is it the weekend yet?
I just wanna lose myself

I just wanna find someone

I just wanna fall in love
I just want something new
Fall back out when Monday comes
Oh is it the weekend yet?
Oh is it the weekend yet?
