

A Heart Still Breaks

Knox

It doesn't matter how it ended
It doesn't matter where you put the blame
It doesn't matter what your friends said
It doesn't matter how you cope with the pain

You'll try to escape
In a hundred new ways
But at the end of the day
A heart still breaks the same

Two shots that used to be coffee
One text that used to be "call me"
Stay friends or throw the match on the flame
A heart still breaks the same
Two kids that used to be lovers
One song that used to be summer
It's too true when everything seems to change
A heart still breaks the same

I bet you're thinking that it won't hurt
I bet you're thinking at a point, you'll go numb
It doesn't matter who did what first
It only matters that it once felt like love

Yeah, we fall for the chase
Then we go separate ways
But at the end of the day
A heart still breaks the same

Two shots that used to be coffee
One text that used to be "call me"
Stay friends or throw the match on the flame
A heart still breaks the same
Two kids that used to be lovers
One song that used to be summer
It's too true when everything seems to change
A heart still breaks the same

A heart still breaks the same
A heart still breaks the same
A heart still breaks the same

It's two shots that used to be coffee
One text that used to be "call me"
Stay friends or throw the match on the flame
A heart still breaks the same
Two kids that used to be lovers
One song that used to be summer
It's too true when everything seems to change
A heart still breaks the same

A heart still breaks the same
A heart still breaks the same
A heart still, a heart still breaks the same
The same, a heart still breaks the same