

Dumpster Fire

Knox

Grab the gasoline and matches
Grab the sheets and grab the mattress
And all those pictures from the attic
No, I don't mean to be dramatic but
I keep finding all your hair ties in my room
And I've still got that hoodie you fit right into Got all these shattered pieces in my soul
I don't know why I still hold
But today's the day I let them go

My hearts a dumpster fire
Burning all damn day
It's filled with memories of us that all went up in flames
And maybe it's trash
Maybe it's really not that bad
But the smoke from what you broke is growing higher
While I'm tryin' find some peace of mind
In this dumpster fire

Throw my body in a bag
Pronounce me dead to you at last
And all those promises we made
Can rest in pieces in the past
So light it up, up, up
Until there's nothing left
I'm burning up, up, up
So hot I'm starting to sweat

My hearts a dumpster fire
Burning all damn day
It's filled with memories of us that all went up in flames
And maybe it's trash
Maybe it's really not that bad
But the smoke from what you broke is growing higher
While I'm tryna find some peace of mind
In this dumpster fire

I'll light an effigy
Burning like you used to burn for me
Just one flick of a cigarette and I'm free, I'm free
I'll light an effigy
Burning like you used to burn for me
Just one flick of a cigarette and I'm free, I'm free

My hearts a dumpster fire
Burning all damn day
It's filled with memories of us that all went up in flames
And maybe it's trash
Maybe it's really not that bad
But the smoke from what you broke is growing higher
While I'm tryin' find some peace of mind
In this dumpster fire
