

Miss When You Missed Me

Knox

I don't know why but, lately, I been thinking about you
I didn't think twice, never thought I'd even have to
But then I saw you out with your friends, it was 2 AM
You were taking shots and falling into him just like we used to
I think this is the part that I haven't gotten used to, so

I hope that you're happy now, happy now
But I can't stand the sound of
No missed calls, 'cause that's when it hits me
I guess I just miss when you missed me
Slow down now, you're moving on, moving on
And I just heard your favorite song
But your gone, God, that's when it hits me
I guess I just miss when you missed me

(I guess I just miss when you missed me)

I don't know why but it didn't hit me 'til you stopped hitting me up
Leave it to me to not feel a thing 'til I'm not the thing you want
No, I didn't break down when I walked right out
And I dropped off all your stuff
Yeah, it took a little time but I finally realized that you're not coming back, so

I hope that you're happy now, happy now
But I can't stand the sound of
No missed calls, 'cause that's when it hits me
I guess I just miss when you missed me
Slow down now, you're moving on, moving on
And I just heard your favorite song
But your gone, God, that's when it hits me
I guess I just miss when you missed me

(I guess I just miss when you missed me)
Oh, I guess I just miss when you missed me
(Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh)
(Oh-oh, oh)
(Ooh, ooh, ooh)

This mess that I made
Think about it every day ([?])
Are you ever coming home?
It's my own fault I'm alone

I hope that you're happy now, happy now
But I can't stand the sound of
No missed calls, 'cause that's when it hits me
I guess I just miss when you missed me
Slow down now, you're moving on, moving on
And I just heard your favorite song
But your gone, God, that's when it hits me
I guess I just miss when you missed me
