

The DJ

Knox

I've got a problem, a ten out of ten
She's bringing the bottle, she's bringing her friends
She knows how to party, she does it a lot
And, no, I can't take it, but I'll take another shot

She's so bad, she's so fine
She's so probably gonna ruin my life
She's with me, but she's not mine
Thought by now I woulda saw the signs

She always knows the DJ wherever we go
She always gets the free drinks, the Jack and the Coke
God, I'm in too deep, I'm out too late
Her song ain't the only thing that's getting played

She always knows the DJ, yeah, ah, ah
She always knows the DJ, yeah, ah, ah

She's on the table, I'm on the floor
She's getting a hug from every bouncer at the door (Where's my hug at?)
She's picking the playlist and kissing her friends
I'm in a war between my dick and common sense

She's so bad, she's so fine
She's so probably gonna ruin my life

She always knows the DJ wherever we go
She always gets the free drinks, the Jack and the Coke
God, I'm in too deep, I'm out too late
Her song ain't the only thing that's getting played

She always knows the DJ, yeah, ah, ah
She always knows the DJ, yeah, ah, ah

She's so bad, she's so fine
She's so probably gonna ruin my life
She's with me, but she's not mine
Thought by now I woulda saw the signs

She always knows the DJ wherever we go
She always gets the free drinks, the Jack and the Coke
God, I'm in too deep, I'm out too late
Her song ain't the only thing that's getting played
She always knows the DJ wherever we go
She always gets the free drinks, and God only knows
And that I'm in too deep, I'm out too late
Her song ain't the only thing that's getting played

She always knows the DJ, yeah, ah, ah
She always knows the DJ, yeah, ah, ah
She always knows the DJ, yeah, ah, ah
She always knows the DJ, yeah, ah, ah
