

Treadmill

Knox

Never been so out of breath
Damn I feel so out of shape
You got me clutching my chest, cardiac arrest
Racing racing round in my brain
Personification of summer
So what that I can't relate
I'm sweatin' through all my sweaters
Just tryna stay in your weather
But you keep slippin' away, away, away

Slow down, slow down
Only holding onto hope now, hope now
Don't know how long I can hold out, hold out
When I'm just moving in place
(And you been kicking all this dust in my face)

I don't wanna be what you like
Tryin' read all the signs
But I'm caught in a standstill
Feels like I've been goin' for miles
Gettin' nowhere in style, chasing you on a treadmill
Caught in a loop, tryna get me to you
Got my heart on the line
Got me out of my mind
Got me runnin' in circles just tryna make you mine

You're slippin' right through my fingers
Like tryna bottle the breeze
I'm fallin' over my sneakers
Like it's the hundred meter dash
I just wanna hold you but you're going too fast, too fast

Slow down, slow down
I'm only holding onto hope now, hope now
I don't know how long I can hold out, hold out
When I'm just moving in place
(And you been kicking all this dust in my face)

I don't wanna be what you like
Tryin' read all the signs
But I'm caught in a standstill
Feels like I've been goin' for miles
Gettin' nowhere in style, chasing you on a treadmill
Caught in a loop, tryna get me to you
Got my heart on the line
Got me out of my mind
Got me runnin' in circles just tryna make you mine

Slow down, slow down
I'm only holding onto hope now, hope now
I don't know how long I can hold out, hold out
When I'm just moving in place
(And you been kicking all this dust in my face)
Slow down, slow down
I'm only holding onto hope now, hope now
I don't know how long I can hold out, hold out
When I'm just moving in place

I don't wanna be what you like
Tryin' read all the signs
But I'm caught in a standstill
Feels like I've been goin' for miles
Gettin' nowhere in style, chasing you on a treadmill
Caught in a loop, tryna get me to you
Got my heart on the line
Got me out of my mind
Got me runnin' in circles just tryna make you mine

(Tryna make you mine)
