

Beg To Differ

Knucks

Yo (Yo)

You ain't heard? Then come book me
Lessons that I learnt as a young rookie
No fucks, you know Knucks, he a tough cookie
Not known to crumble when it rumbles in the cut fully Ghosts in the lofts, shit's tough, but we act merry
Conditioned to the stuff on a man's tele'
Bakerloo tube to school, shit was mad tekky
Mad ends, back then we had the Blackberries (Da, da-da-da)
Couple beanies then on my BBM
Ask her for a broadcast so I can pree her friend

Uh, send shots in the mail, but I beg to differ (Differ)
Think she won't tell, bro, I beg to differ
Spoke to your girl when we went for dinner
Dipped when it hit twelve and she left the slipper
Do it by myself 'cause it's less trivia
Think you're stressing me, huh?
Yo, I beg to differ (Differ)
Second off the shelf, bro, I beg to differ
Think you're someone else, bro, I beg to differ (Yo)

Don't hit my cell 'less it's money in hand
Labels that rang moving funny with gang
Let it bark in the park, man, I done it and ran
But they wanna tell me 'bout a government plan
Said we did it 'cause we never had a chance
No more buj in the hood, hit us like an avalanche
Tell them, "Break a leg," now they wanna grab an arm
Now they got a TEC, all they wanna have is qualms
And it's hard, no milk in the yard
Bills my marj, discard 'cause she gave me the half
And you really think I'm taking a last place?
Don't make me laugh, mate
The one they envy, but they can't hate
I'm the one that they doubted, you know
Try take me down and we going out together
And to really think that we were bredrins, you know
Think you'd do that shit again, but I beg to differ (To differ)

Sent shots in the mail, but I beg to differ
Think she won't tell, bro, I beg to differ
Spoke to your girl when we went for dinner
Dipped when it hit twelve and she left the slipper
Do it by myself 'cause it's less trivia
Think you're stressing me, huh?
