Knucks

Aye

Huh, I know that your dos and your don'ts how you pride yourself, mmm
But put your way of life on the line, you just might surprise yourself, uh
I know what you're like as well
Thin line with wrong and right as well, uh
Been doubted so many times in my life, sometimes I surprise myself, hey
Well, they on their high horses, I can tell
But if their way of life on the line, they just might surprise theyselves, ayy
Handle it by yourself
Ain't no gang when you by yourself
Been doubted so many times in my life, sometimes I surprise my-

Aye, what have you done to be judging decisions?

A couple predicaments man's been in
Could've got me easily locked in prison
But I know what I did when I did 'em
The story of Knuckles is chilling
The fear of dying the hero or living long enough and becoming the villain
But they'll wheel it as long as I'm willing
Still tryna make a killing, the thing is the paigons tryna do the same thing
Ain't just praying on my downfall, they're praying that I'm out more, patiently waiting
If you've never lived like this, how can you weigh the mistakes that I'm making?
Or say that you ain't do the same thing
Take the shortcut way to the station

Huh, I know that your dos and your don'ts how you pride yourself, mmm
But put your way of life on the line, you just might surprise yourself, uh
I know what you're like as well
Thin line with wrong and right as well, uh

No matter how tall you think you are, we're living in a small world
No matter how tall you think you are, we're living in a small world
No matter how tall you think you are, we're living in a small world
No matter how big you think you are, we're living in a small, small world

Lagga

Yo, where's your credentials? (CV)
What have you done that's influential?
What me and Skeng done, that's confidential
You had a name back then, you had so much potential
I ain't even being disrespectful
But you're hating, it's coincidental
Boy, stop lying on them instrumentals
Bro, it's dreadful
Gang said "Is it that?" I said "Definitely"
They mention them, I don't know why you brought them up
Man, I don't see the relevancy
If I do it, you won't ever suspect it was me
When it's go time, don't wanna see no hesitancy

Us and them don't agree, evidently
We're gonna beef them one day inevitably
So fuck it! Let's start it intentionally (Lagga)
