

Thames

Knucks

If my words got you hurt then they meant to
If I ever did you dirty then I meant to
Patterned and it's happened 'cause it's meant to
Head down jumping out the rental
Never fold, never bend, 'nah mean?
Let 'em take offence, 'nah mean?
They can't pose a threat, 'nah mean?
Man'll leave him in the Thames, blood, you 'nah mean?

Yeah, heard you getting further in your decline
You can play my verses in the mean time
Yeah, trying to get the honey out the beehive
Told her it's exactly what it seems like
Let me calm your nerves like a 3.5
Let me calm your nerves like some tea might
She sip a cup of tea, shawty moving uppity
We might have to escort her off the property
Come and fuck with me, I could take you to the water
Mandem move like lambs all for the slaughter
Stepping out, the shepherd in the courtyard
But I can't tell you weather, it's the forecast
Baby, I'm a mover, not a talker
Type of yute to do the shit you thought of
Never sell my soul, I can't be bought, nah
Even if they add a couple noughts, ah

If my words got you hurt then they meant to
If I ever did you dirty then I meant to
Patterned and it's happened 'cause it's meant to
Head down jumping out the rental
Never fold, never bend, 'nah mean?
Let 'em take offence, 'nah mean?
They can't pose a threat, 'nah mean?
Man'll leave him in the Thames, blood, you 'nah mean?

Whoa, whoa, whoa, take your time, whoa
Shawty give me mind like a psycho
I can go neck and neck with the best, nigga, try know
With my hands tied and my eyes closed
Nothing but a mic and my mind roll
Get a rack aligned, leave your mind blown
Can't call her a hoe 'cause she my hoe
In the bedroom, leave her sweating like Tae Bo
And I don't really like it when fighting
But you don't understand just how my pride is Warned you 'bout them essays you be writing
Now I got you ticking twice, yeah
And I won't ever change, I could never change
They gave me lemons, bae, I made lemonade
Tell 'em get it straight, man are heavyweight
Why they trying biting like they Tyson?

If my words got you hurt then they meant to
If I ever did you dirty then I meant to
Patterned and it's happened 'cause it's meant to
Head down jumping out the rental
Never fold, never bend, 'nah mean?

Let 'em take offence, 'nah mean?
They can't pose a threat, 'nah mean?
Man'll leave him in the Thames, blood, you 'nah mean?
