

Evolution

Kobra and the Lotus

I've been waiting for changes that never come my way
Maybe I've painted outside with tainted beliefs
In the mouth of the lion I choose to reason
All the walls closing in on the weight of my sins misgiven

Until I see my truth never fully realized
My truth, imperfection, brings me closer to myself

Loved, you are loved
Embrace your pain
You will rise
You will say here I am
Here I am!

I've been treading a river leading me astray
Maybe my morals have faded from seeking release
In the blood of another I choose my cleansing, Yea
As the sound of my heart slowly deafens what I believed in

Until I see my truth, a semblant
My truth, imperfection, brings me closer to myself

Loved, you are loved
Embrace your pain
You will rise
You will say here I am
Here I am!

Life! Death! Evolution!

Loved, you are loved
Embrace your pain
You will rise
You will say here I am
Here I am!
