

Snake Pit

Kobra and the Lotus

Scales of cold and black
A chosen violation
Whoa snakepit
Slither toward the flame
Dare to hear its game
Whoa snakepit
Hear the poison
Loud
Cry louder
The snake slowly slithers deep down
Into the snakepit
Slowly slithers on the thousandth snake
Back down toward the hated pit
You know this place, you've been here before
Welcome back to your snakepit
The venom shrouds the light
Of another perfect morning
Their sins maintain the fight
Back down into their snakepit
Deep down into their snakepit
Deep down a breathless creatures breathing
A crawling vile backless puzzle
To shamed to face the pain its reeking
Embracing a twisted paradise
Slowly slithers on the thousandth snake
Back down toward the hated pit
You know this place cus your back again
Welcome home to your snakepit
The venom shrouds the light
Of another perfect morning
Their sins maintain the fight
Back down into their snakepit
Deep down into their snakepit
Darkness feels so nice when gates are gone
BITE!
Everyone's the same so no one knows their self lit sickness
Trying to run away from what they're doing
Hard to feel so stuck and try to move in one direction
When all these snakes don't know where they're going Back down into the venomous snake pit
A life of violent paradise
Doesn't it sound nice to live in the pit
Doesn't it sound nice to live in the pit
Doesn't it sound nice to live in the pit
Doesn't it sound nice, Snake pit, gotcha, hahahaha!
Not so fast young lady!
