

Single Again

Kodak Black

Back in the streets

Fuck it, I'm single again

Back in the streets

That relationship shit, just ain't the life for me

Think we were better of friends because every changed when I go t the cheeks

I can hardly remember when we never not beef

I don't remember the last time everything was peaceful between us

Everybody see the best in me

So why the fuck you see a cheater?

Every time I call you we argue, that's why I barely ring you

It's my fault, never should have spoiled you, remember when you used to be sweeter

I make the sheets rock, Aaliyah

High school sweetheart turned Diva

Used to make you sneak out the crib then run

Posted with my heat out, 1800

I ain't trusting nobody but these drugs

Go get me another Molly, I don't need love

I'm so tired of these girls

Everything be alright until we fuck

She said, "I like when you beat it up, geeked up

That's what be making me dumb."

And you eat the pussy good, P's up

Then you wonder why I get crazy

Like boy, you got me fucked up thinking you gonna shake me

Fucking me like I'm your only lady

Got you hoping you can keep me with a baby

That way never made a nigga stay, usually would break it

Fuck it, I'm single again

Back in the streets

That relationship shit, just ain't the life for me

Think we were better off friends because every changed when I g ot the cheeks

I can hardly remember when we never not beef

I don't remember the last time everything was peaceful between
us

Everybody see the best in me

So why the fuck you see a cheater?

Every time I call you we argue, that's why I barely ring you
