

Between Two Bottles

Koe Wetzel

Turnin' back or stayin' straight
I guess some things are just the same
Oh, when you don't know what you need

Hangin' 'round like a backup plan
Maybe he can but baby I can't
Be there when all else fails
While you're tryin' to decide between right and wrong

I'll be between two bottles
Between bar stools, some place awful
Between lovin' and leavin' you
Tear the book where the chapter ends
Between here and the next ones is
And put some miles between the two
I'm on my way to no damn clue
Between you and some place new

Sorry baby but it's not your choice
You can't pick up your favorite toys
Oh, and leave the rest behind
You'll look back and wonder where I'm at
But don't you bother tryin' to find where I'm at
'Cause I'm lost right now, and I refuse to be found
While you're tryin' to decide between right and wrong

I'll be between two bottles
Between bar stools, some place awful
Between lovin' and leavin' you
Tear the book where the chapter ends
Between here and the next ones is
And put some miles between the two
I'm on my way to no damn clue
Between you and some place new

Tear the book where the chapter ends
Between here and the next ones is
And put some miles between the two
I'm on my way to no damn clue
Between you and some place new
