

Love

Koe Wetzel

To say I've been missing you
Is the worst thing possible that I can ever do
And to sleep one more night next to you
Should be out of the question, don't ask me no questions like
If I love you because I don't

I don't love you
The selfish don't love nobody
And I can't love you
Like you should be loved

Don't talk crazy, killing yourself won't change a goddamn thing
If it's help that you need, I know a place down the street
And the storm is moving in, it's been raining for five full day s
And I know now's not the best time but I just got to say

I don't, I don't, I don't love you, oh
The selfish don't love nobody
And I can't love you
Like you should be loved

Was it an accident?
When a broken heart and a bullet mark is all that she left
To ask if I give a damn should be out of the question
Don't ask me no questions 'cause

I don't love you
The selfish don't love nobody
'Cause I can't love you
Like you should be loved

I don't love you
The selfish don't love nobody, yeah
