

Lubbock

Koe Wetzel

I'm gonna move on up to Lubbock for the weekend
Gonna see how much trouble I can find
Gonna move on up to Lubbock for the weekend, ah Lord
Leave my trouble and my bullshit behind

Hell I'm tired of all this work and
Oh my boss is a fuckin' jerk
He's crazy if he thinks that I'm gonna work this Saturday
Pack my worries, pack my bags
Hell I might not make it back
If those candle burns keep on burning like they always do

I'm gonna move on up to Lubbock for the weekend
Gonna see how much trouble I can find
Gonna move on up to Lubbock for the weekend, ah Lord
Leave my trouble and my bullshit behind
Giddy up, giddy up, giddy up, giddy up, goodbye

Hell my mind is done made up
Think I found my one true love
But my one true love's in Stephenville and screaming on the phone
No I don't want to leave
Y'all keep them guns up for me
But I gotta go if I plan on getting ass when I get home

I'm gonna move on up to Lubbock for the weekend
Gonna see how much trouble I can find
Gonna move on up to Lubbock for the weekend, ah Lord
Leave my trouble and my bullshit behind

I'm gonna move on up to Lubbock
I'm gonna see how much trouble I can find
I'm gonna move on up to Lubbock for the weekend, ah Lord
Leave my trouble and my bullshit behind

Leave my trouble and my bullshit behind
Leave my trouble and my bullshit behind
Ya we'll fly like a feather when we meet each other

God bless America
And Lubbock Texas
Yeehaw
