

Reconsider

Koe Wetzel

Oh, take another look around me
Still waiting for a light to shine
But if you've looked, you haven't found me, baby
And I don't want to waste your time

But if I tried, would you reconsider?
Would you reconsider coming home?
And if I cried, would you reconsider?
Would you reconsider comin' home?
Comin' home

Take a breath and try to hold it
Wish I could hold it long enough
Can't help but hate the way we folded baby
Was I ever good enough?

And if I tried, would you reconsider?
Would you reconsider coming home?
And if I cried, would you reconsider?
Would you reconsider coming home?

Ya know I hate myself when I'm not with you
'Cause I don't know what I'm supposed to do
I tried to take a step today
But I keep getting in my way
So take another look around me

And if I tried, would you reconsider?
Would you reconsider comin' home?
And if I cried, would you reconsider?
Would you reconsider comin' home?
Comin' home
