

She Can't Stop Crying

Koe Wetzel

The days have been darker, the nights have grown longer
The hangover's stronger than the dark days before
I have to leave you cause I'm not happy
I need something more than a smile on my face

I'm broken to pieces
Well I am defeated
The truth, I'm telling you
That I can't stop doing what I do
And she can't stop crying

I'm broken to pieces
Well I am defeated
The truth, I'm telling you
That I can't stop doing what I do
What I do
She can't stop crying
She can't stop crying
