

Don't Waste Your Time

Koffin Kats

I don't exactly recall the words we might have said
But the mood was surely violent
And the trigger pulled too fast
Now I'm out here on the highway
Running from my past
Looking towards no future
Just waiting for life to pass

Don't waste your time
My time is ending
Just leave it alone
Ending so quietly

So hard to take refuge
In an ever shrinking world
Regrets I said I wouldn't have Now consuming all my thoughts
She didn't like the way
I couldn't have just one
I didn't find it funny
When the game was turned around
