

The Final Day

Koffin Kats

With tensions high.
In an endless fight.
A final mistake.
To end it all.

And feel the power of a million suns we are going to die.

So dance and sing enjoy a final round.
And after all this was a fucked up world.
In death we find equality.
Now close your eyes and feel atomic fire rain on you.

Now where's your faith?
Did it serve you well?
The family that prays.
Still dies the same way.

And the rest assured we were all to blame this is the last day on the earth.

So dance and sing enjoy a final round.
And after all this was a fucked up world.
In death we find equality.
Now close your eyes and feel atomic fire rain on you.

Dance and sing enjoy a final round.
And after all this was a fucked up world.
