

I Got Options Too

Kofi

Yeah

You've got a way with people its noticeable
You make me wanna slow it down like I'm not into you
Every time I try to pay no mind and run it up yeah
Somehow you got me running back with my arms wide open
Yeah

You got me
Right where you want me probably
Just like your ex man probably
Just so you can say you got me
But I've got options too
And it's not me it's you
I'm not miserable
Slow it down
I've got options too
I've got options

Look me in the eyes tell me do you see a man who won't leave yo u
Look me in the eyes tell me do you see a man who wont cheat on you (I don't)
You ask me to slide late night not fair you know me
Waist on slim slim and that ass unholy
I fly you out to different locations on me
I treat you right till you lose your patience on me
Then you want me to apologize and come back to you
If I do it's cause I want you
I don't need you (Nah)
(But I still let you think that)

You got me
Right where you want me probably
Just like your ex man probably
If you want another him that's not me
Cause I've got options too
And it's not me it's you
I'm not miserable
Slow it down yeah
I've got options too
I've got options
