

Mine

Kofi

Yeah yeah
Woah, woah, woah
Yeah yeah
Woah, woah, woah

Imma just drink till I love you again
I kinda hate you sober
Girl, I'm sorry I'm lost in my feelings again
I'll be back once the drugs take over
You be wasting my time
All on my mind
And that doesn't make us closer
I've been wishing that I didn't know ya

It's like champagne pop off and you pop up
Star crossed lovers what you call us
I just call you annoying
And I know you're the last one for me
It's like I call issues what you call trust
I call fucked up what you call us
You call me when you need me
When you see me

I can't call you mine
I can't call you mine
I can't call you mine
Can't call you mine
Yeah yeah

Girl, let me drink till I love you again
I still hate you sober
Sorry I'm lost in my feelings again
I'll be back once the drugs take over
I hate myself when I'm with you
But you be feeling yourself when you're with me
You love me so much when I'm winning
But when I need you your love gets shifty

It's like champagne pop off and you pop up
Star crossed lovers what you call us
I just call you annoying
And I know you're the last one for me
It's like I call issues what you call trust
I call fucked up what you call us
You call me when you need me
When you see me

I can't call you mine
I can't call you mine
I can't call you mine
Can't call you mine

You use my name for the wrong games
I can not change when you tempt me
Write my wrongs, be the author
I can't fall for your offers
But if I take another drink

I might need your ETA
Sober missed calls, I know you got a man but that shit don't bother me
I know its misunderstood for you but you
Still think we can fall back in love
