

Somebody Like You

Kofi

And tonight I'll let you take over
Drunk off love, we won't see sober
I wish I never fell in love with
Somebody like you

Our home came with forty roaches in the kitchen
No lock on the door
We used to sleep on a mattress that my bro found on the floor
I was sellin' beats to take you out for ramen, wish I had more
But you was still down
And I was happy, though we lived rough
I ain't had seven dollars to my name
In my bank account, a buck fifty
But I could give a fuck, I could be kickin' rocks
Until I'm kickin' dust as long as you was there to kick it with me
I remember all that late night lovin', FaceTime lyin'
You thought I was playin' GTA, bare sirens
Dogs barkin', guns blazin', I'm tryin'
To get your ass up outta this place

And tonight I'll let you take over
Drunk off love, we won't see sober
I wish I never fell in love with
Somebody like you

And tonight I'll let you take over
Drunk off love, we won't see sober
I wish I never fell in love with
Somebody like you

Love so good, I think I met you in a past life
I shoulda known you wasn't ready for that fast life
I'm always on the road, and I don't always act right
But if you ever need a favor, you don't gotta ask twice
I'd give you the shirt off my back while bending over backwards
We could be famous together, live happily ever after
I coulda shown you from early, this would be a disaster
'Cause you're a gorgeous actress and I'm just a ghetto rapper
And I never shoulda had you, but still
I'm tryna make plays, you the baddest in the city on your worst day
I don't think I could ever forget our first date
But now we're done, I'm tryna go back to the first day
This ain't the end of the story, baby, this shit a saga
I would trade all of my money and my Balenciaga
Just to be with you for maybe one night
Otherwise I might lose myself to this fast life

And tonight I'll let you take over
Drunk off love, we won't see sober
I wish I never fell in love with
Somebody like you
