

Wake Up

Kofi

I don't wanna wake up
Without you in my bed
Without you I am heartless
Without you I am dead
No, I don't wanna wake up (without you in my bed)
I don't wanna wake up (without you I am dead)

Let me tell you one thing that's for certain
Gave you too much love I can't forget
This ain't really turn out how it's supposed to
And you know it's fucking with my head, yeah
I know you're still crazy 'bout me baby
You know I'm still crazy 'bout you too
I cannot go telling you I love you
Even though that's all I wanna do
Aah yeah

'Cause I don't wanna wake up
Without you in my bed
Without you I am heartless
Without you I am dead
No I don't wanna wake up (without you in my bed)
I don't wanna wake up (without you I am dead)

I'm just here losing my patience
Thinking of the days we used to make love
Praying for the day that we gon' make up
Would you take me back into your arms one day if I said that we'd never break up?
Too many sleepless nights that we done stayed up
These monsters ain't the only thing I'm facing
It's dangerous for you

Lately I been seeing too much black and not much light
I just know that I just don't have much left in this fight
Many times I lose myself when day turns into night
Take off in my mind, but wish that I could choose to fly
Take off in the darkness, ain't no stopping till the sun
I am just too tired man, I just cannot keep running
I don't wanna do it, so don't tell me where the gun is What you doing to me? Drive my truck right off the mountain
She don't really love me, she just like me 'cause I'm something
She don't really trust me, trust me, I don't trust in nothing
Starting to believe that I just don't deserve the lovin'
The lovin'

'Cause I don't wanna wake up
Without you in my bed
Without you I am heartless
Without you I am dead
No, I don't wanna wake up (without you in my bed)
I don't wanna wake up (without you I am dead)

All I'm really asking for is closure
I don't really wanna be your friend
Pass you in the streets like I don't know you
If you leave me now, this is the end

Go tell your friends
That when they see me
On stage at a party doin' my own thing
They cannot approach me like we're homies
That's the old me
If she lonely
Tell that shordie go listen to Kofi
Tell her sorry
I'm not sorry
Fuck it

'Cause I don't wanna wake up
Without you in my bed
Without you I am heartless (without you I am heartless)
Without you I am dead (without you I am dead)
No I don't wanna wake up (without you in my bed)
I don't wanna wake up (without you I am dead)
