Kojey Radical

Caught in the way
Got so much to say
Losing myself to somebody else who cannot relate
A spark in the wire
Fighting the rain
Nobody else, I'm beside myself with nothing to gain

At the end of it, it all comes down to this
Looking for a moment I can miss
Tell me, is it worse if I insist
If our last moment ends like this?

Please pick up the phone
I'm not alone
I'm not your stepping stone
Don't need it
Rushing out this home
I think I've had enough
I just can't see the reason

At the end of it, it all comes down to this
Looking for a moment I can miss
Tell me, is it worst if I insist
If our last moment ends like this?
