

Prelude

Kojey Radical

I was saving hard
In this world, we can't get anything free in this world
But my aim was to come to England
It is not easy to live in England
You will suffer
My mind was to improve my education first and go back to Ghana
But I have lived my life here