

Hey Bartender

Koko Taylor

I went partying the other night
Started drinking and got real tight
I got down with each and all of my friends
I felt so good I had to do it again

I said hey bartender
Hey man looka here
A draw one, draw two, maybe three four glasses of beer

I saw a man sitting on the end
He said baby can't we be friends
You're looking sweet as you can be
Oh come on down and have a drink with me

I said hey bartender
Hey man looka here
A draw one, draw two, maybe three four glasses of beer

Jukebox playing everything
All them cats begin to swing
Now I heard somebody called
One last round for the alcohol

I said hey bartender
Hey man looka here
A draw one, draw two, maybe three four glasses of beer

I said hey bartender
I said hey bartender
I said hey bartender
I said hey bartender
A draw one, two, three four glasses of beer
