

Hello From The Road

Kolby Cooper

Hello from the road we played Birmingham tonight
Yeah the band was on one and the crowd was on fire
Just got back from the bar 'cause somebody took a right hook
Sometimes I hate it baby, how different our lives look

Everybody's drunk and I'm a little high
I wish that I could tell you that I'm feelin alright

But, I'm just feelin' alone
I wish I was at home, guess I gotta go
Hello from the road

Hello from the road
I guess California's cool
I hate to tell you that I like it 'cause I know you'd like it too
Can't believe they pay me money for the shit I get to see
Feels like I should be happy but between you and me

I just feel alone
I wish I was at home, guess I gotta go
Hello from the road

I can't sleep but these wheels are rolling
I feel so lost in the great wide open
I miss you like hell but you already know it
I don't mean to keep you awake
I just called to say

I just feel alone
I wish I was at home, I don't wanna go
'Cause I just feel alone

I wish I was at home, guess I gotta go
Hello from the road
