

One Last

Kolby Cooper

We're way past the point of being okay
I swear you hate me
You swear I've changed
I guess there's not much left to say
So before we go our separate ways

We ain't gotta fight
Ain't gotta be mean
This might be the last time we're ever you and me
Tomorrow's gonna hurt
So if we can't fix it
Show me what I'm gonna be missing

If we got one last night getting tangled in the covers
For one last time, think we owe it to each other
Love me like you're leaving
Make my world go black
Baby, let's make this one last
Baby, let's make this one last

We were in too deep
Yeah, it meant too much
Not to make what's left of the last bit of love
One last kiss, one last goodbye
Let's set this bed on fire

If we got one last night getting tangled in the covers
For one last time, think we owe it to each other
Love me like you're leaving
Make my world go black
Baby, let's make this one last

If we got one last dance in the dark for the feeling
One last chance 'fore my heart starts bleedin'
Love me like you're leaving, just not so fast
Baby, let's make this one last
Baby, let's make this one last

We ain't gotta fight
Ain't gotta be mean
This might be the last time we're ever you and me
Yeah, tomorrow's gonna hurt
So if we can't fix it
Show me what I'm gonna be missing

If we got one last night getting tangled in the covers
For one last time, think we owe it to each other
Love me like you're leaving
Make my world go black
Baby, let's make this one last

If we got one last dance in the dark for the feeling
One last chance 'fore my heart starts bleedin'
Love me like you're leaving, just not so fast
Baby, let's make this one last
Baby, let's make this one last
Baby, let's make this one last
