

Woke Up Hungover

Kolby Cooper

I seen it in movies, I heard it in old country songs
Yeah, I knew just what I was supposed to do after you'd gotten gone
So I called up my friends and I told 'em that you said goodbye
They said they got my back and I'll be back on my feet in no time

Yeah, we drank all the drinks and we smoked all the smokes
Hit on every girl at the bar
We stacked empty cups and we partied enough
To unbreak two broken hearts
We shot the lights out and we shut the place down
And just like they tell you to do
But then I woke up hungover as hell this morning
Still wasn't over you
Oh-oh-oh-whoa, oh-oh-oh-whoa

It worked for my brother when he lost a good one last year
Somewhere between the cigarette machine and the beers
Well, he forgot all about her in that party crowd and moved on
I did what he did, but I guess I did something wrong

'Cause we drank all the drinks and we smoked all the smokes
Hit on every girl at the bar
We stacked empty cups and we partied enough
To unbreak two broken hearts
We shot the lights out and we shut the place down
And just like they tell you to do
But then I woke up hungover as hell this morning
Still wasn't over you
Oh-oh-oh-whoa, oh-oh-oh-whoa

You're doing fine sipping White Claws and wine
And I'm burning though cheap ninety proof
Yeah, I woke up hungover as hell this morning
And still wasn't over you
I guess I'll wake up hungover as hell every morning
Until I get over you
Oh-oh-oh-whoa, oh-oh-oh-whoa
