

Circus Slave

Kolohe Kai

Yeah
People around the world
Don't be slaving

What do I gain
What do I lose
Should I just stay
Or should I find my out
This is a game, fit to prove
That I'm so confused, yeah

I keep feeling like I won't be falling
That, I know is my ego just talking
What do I say
I just love to play
I keep saying that I won't be chasing
The metal rabbit in the dog races
What do I say

I'm a circus slave
I'm living the life
But no one really cares about me
I feel played
I'm rolling the dice, and all I see is clowns around me
I'm just saying
True happiness will find you
As soon as we say bye to this world, yeah this crazy world
Of a circus slave

Yeah, don't choke now on this rhythm yes

You think this life isn't dangerous
You don't even know how hot this flame is Cause it's a mirage that's gone on for ages
The hidden price you pay when they know what your name is There's fake people all around
They don't care what you're about, they just care about the clout
Snap, Snap with their pictures
To make like they're rolling with ya
But when the applause all ends, they gone ditch ya
And when will we learn
That time is the currency that can't be burned
Cause on our deathbed when we toss and turn
We won't get time back no matter what we earned

I'm a circus slave
Just living the life
But no one really cares about me
I feel played
I'm rolling the dice, and all I see is clowns around me
I'm just saying
True happiness will find you
As soon as we say bye to this world, yeah this crazy world
Of a circus slave

Money, money, money, money
Fake love, love, love

I be thinking it's a funny the hunnies only love me when I'm a up
Feeling like we got so much to deal with How is it we don't know what the deal is
I feel like we can do, yeah much better, much better than that Just how often do we chase those things and Wonder why it does not a bring true joy
True joy

I'm a circus slave
Just living the life
But no one really cares about me
I feel played
I'm rolling the dice, and all I see is clowns around me
I'm just saying
True happiness will find you
As soon as we say bye to this world, yeah this crazy world
Of a circus slave
