

Egg Shells

Kolohe Kai

I wanna save this
I wanna save this love
This could be ageless
More than a trillion bucks
But we've been thinking all wrong
About our flame being gone
I wanna save this

But we've been walking on eggshells
And doubting our kiss
Feeling like we failed
And I can admit
That I'm falling 'cause I ain't getting out of my head
You're falling 'cause you hang onto words I regret
We're walking on eggshells

But we've been walking on eggshells
And doubting our kiss
Feeling like we failed
And I can admit
That I'm falling 'cause I ain't getting out of my head
You're falling 'cause you hang onto words I regret

Eggshells (eggshells)

Been drowning in this storm
Scrapping galore
With all the good we have together
Can we just move on
So are we gonna give up
Or are we gonna seek love
'Cause everything that we do
Is no longer on cruise

I feel like I don't know you anymore
Why are we always on opposite sides of war
Though I know we've got a long road ahead
Maybe we should just kiss and make up instead

But we've been walking on eggshells
And doubting our kiss
Feeling like we failed
And I can admit
That I'm falling 'cause I ain't getting out of my head
You're falling 'cause you hang onto words I regret

We're walking on eggshells
And doubting our kiss
Feeling like we failed
And I can admit
That I'm falling 'cause I ain't getting out of my head
You're falling 'cause you hang onto words I regret

Eggshells (eggshells)

(Eggshells)

And I don't wanna fight if it's a fight
That could lead us to the exit of our love life
But I can't just pretend we're best of friends
When we question the sincerity of our intentions
I don't want to fall if we can fly
And find each other happy side by side

I wanna save this
I wanna save this love, love

But we've been walking on eggshells
Feeling like we failed
And I can admit
That I'm falling 'cause I ain't getting out of my head

We're walking on eggshells
Feeling like we failed
And I can admit
That I'm falling 'cause I ain't getting out of my head
