

Kiss That I Never Had

Kolohe Kai

Its not so simple in fact its undiscrivable the feelings that we have today moving away,made your lips astray how does our love grow stronger each and every day its your voice
its got me tripping
I can't stop missing,missing you
I just wanna kiss you so bad the kiss that I never had yeah
oh my heart stops when I look into your eyes and why do I give it the time by you what do I do finally were about to kiss hope I don't miss feeling all nervous inside feelings that I cannot hide no longer feelings getting stronger
its your voice
oh yeah (all right!)

ooo maturity held me tight from knowing whats wrong and knowing whats right I wanted to hold you with all of my might you are my sun and I am your planet I wish I didn't take you for granet times gravity is pulling me away more and more
