

Paradise

Kolohe Kai

Yeah, ah ah ah
Yeah, ah ah ah
Oooh, ah ah ah yeah

Have you ever seen a people, with so much hospitality
A people so very, very peaceful, filled with love and unity
I have found these people, livin' right under my own roof
With wings that mount up like eagles, with so much aloha, so much true

And why, why don't they lie?
And why don't they cry?
I know know why, they can see paradise
And why don't they lie?
And why don't they cry?
I now know why, they can see paradise
They can see paradise

Have you ever heard of freedom, from every sort of slavery
Found in the little island kingdom, alive fought with bravery
I have found this freedom, living in the islands of the sea
All these children, who could feed them? up on the mountain, they will be

And why, why don't they lie?
And why don't they cry?
I now know why, they can see paradise
And why don't they lie?
And why don't they cry?
I now know why, they can see paradise
They can see paradise

They can see paradise, yeah ah ah ah
They can see paradise
