

Broken

Kongos

Save ten
Kill ten
Save ten lives
So ten lives were traded for time
Will you toe the line for
Three minds?
For three signs
All of them prime, all of them mine
Say ten times
Say ten times
You looked in my eyes
Held your breath, watching them die
Say ten lies
Say ten lies
While you sit on the roof
Under the moon, howling the truth
Save ten dimes
Just ten dimes
A dollar is right for Saturday night
But they're outta time 'cause you're outta wine
Save, save
Kill ten lives
For your own pride
You took ten lives
Ten times
Gimme your eyes
End times
Gimme your eyes

I can not be broken
My eyes are still open
I will not be woken
Till my heart has broken
You hear me, I've spoken
Your eyes are still open
You will not be woken
Till your heart has been broken

Save them
I cannot be broken
I cannot be broken
Kill them
I cannot be broken
I will not be broken
Love them
I cannot be broken
I cannot be broken
Hate them
I cannot be broken
I will not be broken
Take no sides

Save ten
Save ten lives
So ten lives were traded for time
Will you toe the line for
Three minds?

For three signs
All of them prime, all of them mine
Say ten times
Say ten times, you looked in my eyes
