

Tomorrow

Kongos

Sitting, I'm waiting for the sky to fall
Watching, till there's nothing left at all
I'm waiting, I'm staying till I find control
So watch me now, I'll show you how

Tell me, tell me am I on my way?
I'll show you, I'll show you all the plans I made
But I'm sitting, I'm waiting for the sky to fall
The bell to toll, before I move at all

I can wait another day, tomorrow
But my time is borrowed
It was all so easy
But my eyes deceived me
Another day, tomorrow
But my words are hollow
Take my word, I'm leaving
I am lying, believe me
Another day, tomorrow
I'll make my move, tomorrow

Sleep, sleep until you can't wake
Smile until your heart breaks
Give until you can't take
Free at last, you are awake
Watch as all the wheels break
'Cause Fortune never did pay
And peace is only self-made
You're free at last, you are awake

Sitting, I'm waiting for the sky to fall
Watching, till there's nothing left at all
I'm waiting, I'm staying till I find control
So watch me now, I'll show you how

I can wait another day, tomorrow
But my time is borrowed
It was all so easy
But my eyes deceived me
Another day, tomorrow
But my words are hollow
Take my word, I'm leaving
I am lying, believe me
Another day, tomorrow
I'll make my move tomorrow

Sleep, sleep until you can't wake
Smile until your heart breaks
Give until you can't take
Free at last you are awake
Watch as all the wheels break
'Cause Fortune never did pay
And peace is only self-made
You're free at last, you are awake
